DETAILED ACTION

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 11/22/2010 has been entered.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Surinder Sachar on 2/17/2011.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claims 1, 4-12, and 15-17 are hereby CANCELLED.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 18-22 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claims in the application are deemed to be directed to an nonobvious improvement over the prior art, particularly over Keizo et al. (Keizo) (JP 11-178216). The primary reason for allowance of the claims is the inclusion of the particular interconnections of the switch, first and second inverter/rectifiers, Power supply and load. More particularly, the first inverter/rectifier connected in parallel with the series connection of the switch and the inverter/rectifier AC side terminals connected to the load; the second inverter/rectifier connected in series with the power source and with its AC terminals connected to the load. Keizo teaches a power supply apparatus comprising a switch (2, see fig2) in series between an inverter/rectifier (6) and a load (3) with a second inverter/rectifier (4) connected in parallel to the load (3) however Keizo fails to teach the particular claimed interconnections of Applicant's invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
